To be completed if more than one purchaser:

Joint Tenants*  Tenants In Common*

*Where title is held as "JOINT TENANTS" and one of the owners dies, the surviving joint tenant automatically becomes the owner of the property no matter what a Last Will and Testament might state. This is the manner of holding title most commonly used by spouses. However, where title is held as "TENANTS IN COMMON" and one of the owners dies, the deceased owner's interest passes to a beneficiary according to any Last Will and Testament made by the deceased.
